Definitions "Merchant" means and include the shipper the Consignor, the Consignee, the Holder of this Bill of Lading, the Receiver and the Owner of the Goods. "The Freight Forwarder" means the issuer of this Bill of Lading as named on the face of it.

The headings set forth below are for easy reference only.

CONDITIONS

1. Applicability

Notwithstanding the heading "Bill of Lading", the provisions set out and referred to in this document shall also apply if the transport as described on the face of the Bill of Lading is performed by one mode of transport only.

2. Issuance of the "Bill of Lading."

By the issuance of this "Bill of Lading", the Freight Forwarder:

a) Undertakes to perform or to procure the performance of the entire transport from the place at which the goods are taken in charge to the place designated for delivery in this Bill of Lading.

b) Assumes liability as set out in these Conditions.

For purposes and subject to the provisions of this Bill of Lading, the Freight Forwarder shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of any persons of whose services he makes use for the performance of the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading.

3. Negotiability and title to the goods

This Bill of Lading shall be deemed to be negotiable, unless marked "non-negotiable."

By accepting this Bill of Lading the Merchant and his transferees agree with the Freight Forwarder that unless it is marked "non-negotiable" it shall constitute title to the goods and the holder by endorsement of this Bill of Lading shall be entitled to receive or to transfer the goods herein mentioned.

This Bill of Lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the Freight Forwarder of the goods as herein described in respect of the particulars inserted on the face of the Bill of Lading. However proof to the contrary shall not be admissible when this Bill of Lading has been negotiated or transferred for valuable consideration to a third party acting in good faith.

4. Dangerous Goods and indemnity

When the consignor hands to the Freight Forwarders goods which are of a dangerous nature, he shall inform the Freight Forwarder of the exact nature of the danger and indicate, if necessary the precaution to be taken.

Goods of a dangerous nature which the Freight Forwarder did not know were dangerous may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed or rendered harmless, without compensation, further, the consignor shall be liable for all expenses, loss or damage arising out of their handing over for carriage or of their carriage.

5. Description of Goods and Merchants Packing

The consignor shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Freight Forwarder the accuracy, at the time the goods were taken in charge by the Freight Forwarder, of the description of the goods, mania, number, quantity and weight as furnished by him, and the consignor shall indemnify the Freight Forwarder against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. The right of the Freight Forwarder to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under this Bill of Lading to any person other than the consignor.

Without prejudice to Clause 6 (A) (2) (d), the Merchant shall be liable for any loss, damage or injury caused by faulty or insufficient packing of goods or by faulty loading or packing within containers and trailers and on flats when such loading or packing has been performed by the Merchant or on behalf of the Merchant, or by the defect or unsuitability of the containers, trailers or flats, when supplied by the Merchant, and shall indemnify the Freight Forwarder against any additional expenses so caused.

6. Extent of Liability

- A) 1. The Freight Forwarder shall be liable for loss or damage to the goods occurring between the time when he received the goods into his charge and the time of delivery.
2. The Freight Forwarder shall, however, be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage resulted from:
 - a) The wrongful act or neglect of the Consignor or the Consignee,
 - b) compliance with the instructions of the person entitled to give them:
 - c) the lack of, or defective condition of packing in the case of goods which, by their nature are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed;
 - d) handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the goods by the Consignor, the Consignee or any person acting on behalf of the Consignor or the Consignee;
 - e) Inherent vice of the goods:
 - f) insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the goods, coverings, or unit loads;
 - g) strikes or lockouts or stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
 - h) any other cause or event which the Freight Forwarder could not avoid and the consequences whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
3. Where under paragraph 2 the Freight Forwarder is not under any liability in respect of sum of the factors causing the loss of or damage, he shall only be to the extent liable that those factors which he is liable under this clause have contributed to the loss of or damage.
4. The burden of proving that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes, or events, specified in (a) (b) and (h) on paragraph 2 shall rest upon the Freight Forwarder. When the Freight Forwarder establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes, or events, specified in (c) to (g) of paragraph 2, it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The claimant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of these causes or events.
- B) Notwithstanding anything provided for in other clauses of these Conditions, if it can be proved where the loss or damage occurred, the Freight Forwarder and the Merchant shall, as to the liability of the Freight Forwarder, be entitled to require such liability to be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions:
 - i) cannot be departed from by private contact, to the detriment of the claimant, and
 - ii) would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Freight Forwarder in respect of the particulars stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidenced thereof any Particular document which must be issued if such international convention or national law shall apply.

7. Paramount Clause

The Hague Rules contained in the International Convention for the unification of certain rules relating to Bills of Lading, dated Brussels 25th August, 1924, as enacted in the Country of Shipment, shall apply to all carriage of goods by sea or by inland waterways and such provisions shall.

8. Limitation Amount

8.1 When the Freight Forwarder is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the Consignee, in accordance with the contract or should

8.2 The value of the goods shall be fixed according to the commodity exchange price, or if there be no such price, according to the current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.

8.3 Compensation shall not, however, exceed 30 Francs ("Franc" meaning a Unit consisting of 65.5 mgs of gold of millesimal fineness 900") per Kilo of gross weight of the goods lost or

9. Delay, Consequential, Loss. etc.

Arrival times are not guaranteed by the Freight Forwarder. If the Freight Forwarder is held liable in respect of delay, consequential loss or damage other than loss of or damage to the goods, the liability of the Freight Forwarder shall be limited to the double freight for the transport covered by this Bill of Lading, or the value of the goods as determined in Clause 8, whichever is the less.

10. Defenses

10.1 The defenses and limits of liability provided for in these Conditions shall in any action against the Freight Forwarder for loss or damage to the goods whether the action is founded in contract or in tort.

10.2 The Freight Forwarder shall not be entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided for in paragraph 3 of clause 8 if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from an act or omissions of the Freight Forwarder done with intent to cause damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.

11. Liability of Servants and Sub Contractors

11.1 If an action for loss of or damage to the goods is brought against a person referred to in paragraph 2 of clause 2, such person shall be entitled to avail himself of the defenses and limits of liability which the Freight Forwarder is entitled to invoke under these Conditions.

11.2 However, if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from an act or omission of this person, done with intent to cause damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result such person shall not be entitled to benefit of limitation of liability provide in paragraph 3 of clause 8.

11.3 Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of clause 10 one paragraph, 2 of this clause the aggregate of the amounts recoverable from the Freight Forwarder and the persons referred to in paragraph 2 of Clause 2 shall in no case exceed the limits provided for these Conditions.

12. Method and Route of Transportation

The Freight Forwarder reserves to himself reasonable a liberty as to the means, route and procedure to be followed in the handling, storage and transportation of goods.

13. Delivery

If Delivery of the goods or any part thereof is not taken by the Merchant at the time and place when and Where the Freight Forwarder is entitled to call upon the Merchant to take delivery thereof, the Freight Forwarder shall be entitled to store the goods or the part thereof at the sole risk of the Merchant, whereupon the liability of the Freight Forwarder in respect of the goods or that part thereof stored as aforesaid (as the case may be) shall wholly cease and the cost of such storage (if paid by or payable by the Freight Forwarder or any agent or subcontractor of the Freight Forwarder) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Freight Forwarder.

14. Freight and Charges

14.1 Freight to be paid in cash without discount and, whether pre payable or payable at destination to be considered as earned on receipt of the goods and not to be returned or relinquished in any event.

14.2 Freight and all other amounts mentioned in the Bill of Lading are to be paid in the currency named in the Bill of lading or, at the Freight Forwarders option in currency of the country of despatch or destination at the highest rate of exchange for Bankers sight Bills current for prepayable freight on the day of dispatch and for freight payable at destination on the day when the Merchant is notified of arrival of the goods there or on the date of withdrawal of the delivery order whichever rate is the higher, or at the option of the Freight Forwarder on the date of the Bill of Lading.

14.3 All dues, taxes and charges or other expenses in connection with the goods shall be paid by the Merchant.

14.4 The Merchant Shall reimburse the Freight Forwarder in Proportion to the amount of Freight for any cost for deviation or delay or any other increase of cost of whatever nature caused by war, warlike operations, epidemics, strikes, government directions or force majeure.

14.5 The Merchant warrants the correctness of the declarations of contents, insurance, weight, measurements, or value of the goods but the Freight Forwarder reserves the right to have the contents inspected and the weight, measurements or value verified. If on such inspection it is found the declaration is not correct it is agreed that a sum equal either to five times the difference between the correct figure and the Freight charge, or to double the correct Freight less the Freight Charged whichever semis the smaller, shall be payable as liquidated damage to the Freight Forwarder for his inspection cost and losses of freight on other goods notwithstanding any other sum having been stated on the Bill of Lading as Freight payable.

15. Lien

The Freight Forwarder shall have a lien on the goods for any amount due under this Bill of Lading including storage fees and for the cost of recovering same and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner which he may think fit:

16. General Average

The Merchant shall indemnify Freight Forwarder in respect of any claims of a General Average nature which may be made on him and shall provide such Security as may be required by the Freight Forwarder in this connection.

17. Notice

Unless notice of loss of or damage to the goods and the General nature of it be given in writing to the Freight Forwarder or the persons referred to in clause 2, paragraph 2 above, at the place of delivery before or at the time of the removal of the goods in to the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading, or if the loss or damage be not apparent, within 6 consecutive days thereafter such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Freight Forwarder of the goods as described in this Bill of Lading.

18. Time bar

The Freight Forwarder shall be discharged of all liability under, the rules of these Conditions unless suit is brought within nine months after delivery of the goods. In the case of total loss of the goods, the period shall begin to run two months after the goods have been taken in charge by the Freight Forwarder.

19. Jurisdiction

Actions against the Freight Forwarder may only be instituted in the country where the Freight Forwarder has his principal place of business and shall be decided according to the law of such country.
